CHAMBERS

Expert advice, excellence in advocacy

Drystone Chambers provides a dedicated team of experienced counsel providing a comprehensive service, from pre-charge advice through to confiscation and other ancillary orders on conviction. Our primary areas of regulatory expertise are consumer protection, environmental crime, food safety, health and safety, housing, illegal sales, licensing, planning enforcement, rogue traders, trade-marks offences, unfair and fraudulent trading, and unlawful eviction. We are instructed by more than 40 local authorities nationwide, along with organisations and individuals who come to us in the knowledge that we consistently provide the highest standard of advocacy and advisory services.

Experienced practitioner, Andrew Price, will be delivering an informative seminar on the opening day of the conference, Tuesday 20th June at 4.10pm. Andrew's talk will focus on "vulnerable witnesses" and will provide key practical information on changes to practice, procedure and legislation.

Including:

- Who is a vulnerable witness?
- What changes to gathering evidence from these witnesses must be made?
- How is their evidence presented differently at Court?
- What impact does the s.28 hearing procedure have on disclosure?
