Prior to commencing pupillage, Ella worked as a Paralegal at Berri's Law LLP, where she handled a diverse caseload that included both Crown Court and extradition matters. Ella has assisted in a wide range of criminal cases, including attempted murder, serious violence, rape and serious sexual offences, firearms, and drug offences. Ella has been praised for her excellent communication skills and keen eye for detail. She also has considerable experience in dealing with young and vulnerable defendants.

Ella graduated from the University of Nottingham in 2023, where she excelled in her studies, and gained recognition for her success in advocacy competitions at both national and international level. Ella completed her Bar Course at the Inns of Court College of Advocacy, before being called to the Bar in October 2024.
